

Dear Friends,

The very thought of moving—the packing, the lifting, the boxes—can make people shudder. I recall when my wife and I moved for the first time as a married couple. We had a few boxes, a couch, and a table. The “move” was done by lunch. Fast forward 13 years to when we moved again, this time with four kids, endless boxes, furniture, and a headache. Halfway through, I thought, “Oh, this is why people pay movers!” But the opportunity in front of us and the excitement of seeing the Lord work to provide was enough to get us through a few long days.

Similarly, at BCP we are excited for the opportunity the Lord has so graciously put in front of us. Recently we shared that we have sold our physical building in Grafton, and we are deploying the proceeds from the sale into our various ministries. How exciting and humbling it has been to put in motion our plan to grow, at a multiplication rate, our discipleship efforts across the country. Resources that were previously locked up in brick and mortar are now effectively put into action on the ground by placing those resources into churches, people, and missionaries.

A colleague recently noted to me in a joking manner, “I guess BCP is homeless!” The apostle Paul seemed not too worried in 1 Corinthians 4 when he labeled himself as “homeless” but rather was more concerned about the gospel going forward where he was placed. Paul reminds us in Philippians 3:20 that we are just passing through this earth and that our citizenship is in heaven. We seek this same courage and optimism as we deploy our resources across the country. While we soon will have a different home, we are excited to see how BCP will continue to make an impact across the country in people, churches, and homes!

How wonderful it is to know that we are planting future places of ministry in multiple locations by being willing to uproot from one location. Instead of a map that shows one location of ministry, we have stretched across the country with churches, employees, and missionaries in nearly every part of the country. Please partner with us in the gospel as we sojourn our way across the country...help us unpack in your community!

Blessings,

Eric Nihart

BECKY LITTLE'S NEW BOOK

We tragically live in a day when Truth is not sought—it is magically created by one's own will. But the truth is that there is an absolute Truth, that Truth is a treasure, and Truth is attainable!

Our newest author in the BCP Family, Becky Little, has recently had her first young adult fiction book published. If you're a fan of fiction (and Truth) we recommend adding a copy to your library.

"Every boy dreams of growing up to be like his father. Unless his father is a traitor. This is the story of sixteen-year-old Jaydon and his journey to realize who he is before the Truth Master. Set in a dystopian world, Jaydon, along with his faithful dog, Bo, must become a leader of a band of misfit teens, fight shapeshifters, savage mutant creatures, and rescue friends from a dismal dungeon. Bronze Circle is a story full of hope, acceptance, redemption and forgiveness."
